John 10:10

"The devil came to steal. kill and destroy..."

Is 59,

What is most important?

Even though we know that the devil is a reality, we don't gravitate around his powerless thoughts or his hopeless strategies. We are not living under the shadows of the past and what he has done to it. Not only do we live and rejoice under "the shadow" of God's future for us, but we are formed by it. We relate to Him who has designed our future, we believe Him (not only in Him), we walk with Him in such a way that we know Him. We are so well-informed about His plans that they shape our lives and our mindsets. They fuel us with divine energy and perseverance, faith and patience. All this positions us for a true partnership with the God of Heaven to fulfill His agenda for His earth.

As individuals we are not that important for the devil and there is no ground for religious paranoia in our lives. But as we begin to carry what overcame him and stripped him 2000+ years ago, our very existence, our function and our reproduction is a major threat for him and his kingdom. When we walk in the Kingdom, when our voice carries its frequency, when our lives embodies it, then we are walking in the footsteps of the patriarchs, of the prophets, of the Son of God and of the apostles. In this case he will not ask: who are you? he will definitely know who we are because we are not only defined by our own person but by the road we are walking and by who walked it before us. He is not only facing one individual, he is facing a descendency starting in Heaven and now invading earth, and now prevailing against hell.

But if we walk down the streets of Defeat, Depression, Confusion and Resignation, why should he bother? He is not looking for us, he is watching what we carry, what has been formed and developed in us. Why? Because what is modelled in our lives has already proven its supremacy over him.

Nothing can stop destiny

As previously mentioned it's not about us. He wants to destroy our walk in destiny and its fulfillment in our lives. We must be conscious about our Kingdom-destiny as it is expressed in our spiritual father and in the house he is building. We must pay attention to its nature, its way of operation and its resources. The ISAAC-legacy is much more than we might think. It carries more than we might think. It can have more local and global influence and impact than we might think. But the main thing about this destiny is that it cannot be destroyed. It's too powerful. There is no way the devil can do anything to it or with it. This destiny has not been formed by somebody's calculating mind, it has not emerged through the hidden corridors of somebody's imagination. It simply comes from Heaven, from God's own mind. Earth cannot touch it or deform it; hell cannot destroy it. When this destiny begins to roll, it's unstoppable. Its growth cannot be hindered. Its course cannot be deviated. There is absolutely no way the devil can have any influence on it, it will move forward towards total fulfillment. Kingdom-history as recorded in the bible brings enough tangible evidences to convince us.

Therefore the devil has to start somewhere else. He cannot so-to-say "jump" on our destiny in God, he cannot hijack us from the ISAAC-journey.

We must develop Kingdom-weight and be strong in the Spirit

Our destiny in God is invincible because of the life which He has birthed in us. The disciples on the way to Emmaus had turned their back on destiny. They resigned, they were hijacked and left Jerusalem. How could they? Simply because they were too "light". They forgot about the resurrection. As life decreases, death will enter. Therefore their minds had only room for Jesus' death: He was there, He is gone, we are left alone. As life decreases we lose spiritual weight, we become unstable, double-minded. We compromise, navigate and adapt to people and circumstances. Then we have become an easy prey for the devil. It will not take a lot of effort to deviate us from destiny, from the destiny which is ultimately meant to destroy him and re-conquer what rightly belongs to God. Like people, cities, regions and nations.

So: nothing can deviate us from our Kingdom-destiny, nothing can hijack us from the ISAAC-House and fulfill its mandate as expressed in the life of our father... if we develop Kingdom-weight and are strong in the Spirit.

God-given convictions generated by an accurate Word

As we understand that the devil is absolutely and totally powerless when it comes to our destiny, we are attentive to the fact that he will try to undermine our weight in God and our strength in the Spirit. But he cannot. Unless he removes what produces the weight and the strength so we become light and weak. Easy to manipulate with, easy to deviate, easy to paralyze. So we must understand that all decline starts with stealing what God has said. "Did God really say..." was the beginning of the fall of mankind. Pay attention to this: as we let go of the Proceeding Word or tolerate its contamination we underestimate the damage it produces. When the Word disappears, convictions evaporate. Strength and courage melt. We become weak and light, extra-light! This is what can happen with our people: maybe all the seeds we sowed into them Sunday morning are already gone by evening. It can happen to us: the seeds which are sowed into us at GLS and ITIP might be gone the following week as we let contamination take place in our minds, as we let the germs from the expired so-called christian church-culture attack prophetic and apostolic culture, as we become callous with the cultivating and watering work.

Therefore the Revival of the Word and the Spirit is an absolute necessity!

In the same way the decline starts in the stealing, the restoration will begin with reconquering what was stolen, what we let go. When we receive the Seed, cultivate and water it, care for it and stand up for it, it will grow and produce conviction. Convictions will generate strength and courage. As well as joy and peace. We will have roots. Stability and single-mindedness will increase. We will carry spiritual weight, the Spirit will be strong in us, like in Joshua and Caleb. Deviation? Impossible. Disconnection? Unthinkable! We will walk in destiny, we received a legacy and we will fulfill the mandate. The devil's thoughts are powerless, his strategies hopeless.

The battle of Europe has begun!

This is the first continent which received the good news about the Kingdom of God. And experienced waves of reformations. Destiny is not fulfilled... still a job to do, still a distance to walk, still territory to reconquer.

It's time to live by the Proceeding Word!

It's time to develop a strong Spirit!

It's time to model fatherhood, sonship and brotherhood!

It's time to build strong apostolic bases in Europe!

We will do what it takes to see the Kingdom come! We will do what it takes to see the Kingdom-Church rise again from the ashes!

Your covenant-brother for an authentic, irresistible and deep breakthrough,
